No.: 1:17-cv-01028

TO: ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD

On April 10, 2017, Wendy Howell, Gene Segalis, John Dearborn, and Timothy Black (collectively, the “Global Brokerage Investor Group” or “Movants”) filed a motion under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”) asking the Court to consolidate the above-captioned related actions, appoint Movants as Lead Plaintiff for the Class, and approve Movants’ selection of Lead Counsel for the Class. (Dkt. No. 31.)

Based upon the Global Brokerage Investor Group’s review of the competing submissions, it appears that Movants do not assert the largest financial interest in the relief being sought by the Class within the meaning of the PSLRA, and that competing movants 683 Capital Partners, LP and Shipco Transport Inc., having alleged losses of nearly $8.8 million in connection with their purchases of the securities of FXCM, Inc. during the Class Period, do assert the largest financial interest in the relief being sought by the Class (see 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)).

This notice of non-opposition to the competing motions shall have no impact on Movants’ membership in the proposed Class or their right to share in any recovery obtained for the benefit of Class members. In the event that the Court determines that the competing movants are inadequate or incapable of representing the class, the Global Brokerage Investor Group’s members continue to be willing and able to serve as Lead Plaintiffs.

Dated: April 20, 2017

Respectfully submitted,
